Was Much Appreciated That "Kipling" Visit

That successful and enjoyable visit to the "Kipling" home at Brattleboro by the Fortnightly Woman's Club a week ago has been the subject of much appreciation by those who made the pilgrimage and the Herald regrets that it did not have the information at the time to voice this appreciation. Much credit for its success belongs to Mrs. William R. Moody who so well arranged for the same and made it a delightful affair. Mrs. Moody introduced the guest, Mrs. Holbrook present owner of the home who so graciously permitted it to be shown. In a few words Mrs. Holbrook welcomed the women and Mr. A. P. Fitt in his usual characteristic manner read from Kipling's works some of the literature which he had written while a resident and gave a brief biography of his life.

Mrs. A. P. Fitt and Mrs. W. P. Stanley presided at the tea table. The return home of all those who attended was filled with pleasant memories.

Legion Post Elects At Its Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Haven H. Spencer Post 179 American Legion was held in the Legion room in Town Hall on Friday evening, Sept. 29 with a good attendance of its membership. Much business was transacted and the election resulted as follows:

F. W. Whitman, Commander; H. F. Atwood, Vice Commander; S. H. Given, Adjutant; E. J. Livingston, Chaplain; E. W. Livingstone, Finance Officer; M. B. Andrews, Sergeant-at-Arms; H. F. Bigelow, Graves Registration.

A date will soon be fixed for the installation and at the same time the officers of the Auxiliary will be installed. The Post is in a healthy and flourishing condition.

Fortnightly Session Next Friday Afternoon

The Fortnightly Women's Club will meet next Friday afternoon at three o'clock at Alexander Hall when a reception will be tendered to Mrs. Frank P. Bennett, President of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs. Tea will be served with Rev. Mary Andrews, Chaplain.

The usual business session will precede the social function. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance of the membership.

Conference Clergyman Declines N. Y. Pulpit

The Rev. Dr. Adam W. Burnet, pastor of the Westborne Presbyterian Church, Glasgow, Scotland, has declined an invitation to the pastorate of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York City. Dr. Burnet was one of the principal speakers at the Northfield General Conference last summer and while here visited New York and preached at this church upon invitation of the congregation who later extended an offer of the pastorate. Dr. Burnet has many friends here and they are hoping for his return for another series of addresses next year.

He is 49 years old and has been at his present charge nine years. His church has about 750 members and his wife and daughter have been in that country.

Ernest James Tenney

Mr. Ernest James Tenney, age 73 of Northfield Farms died at his home last Saturday evening after a heart attack.

He had spent the day in South Deerfield and, after putting away his car, was waiting for supper when stricken. Dr. R. E. Hubbard was called and arrived at once but nothing could be done.

Mr. Tenney was born in Colrain on June 29, 1860, the son of James Tenney and Olive Clemons Tenney of that town. When a young man he moved to Jacksonville, Vt., where he was engaged in the cream business. In 1898 he moved to Vernon, where he managed the farm of Fred Brown, later acquiring a farm of his own.

He married Cora Sumner of Halifax, Vt. Ten children were born to the marriage of whom seven survive him. They are Clarence, Charles and Harold, all of Northfield; Jesse of New London, Claude of Vernon, Raymond of Brattleboro and Mrs. Harry Burrington of Brattleboro. After the death of his first wife four years ago, he married Mrs. Grace Burrington Carr of Colrain, later moved to Northfield, where he has made his home since with his son, Charles Tenney of the Tenney farm. Mr. Tenney was active in public affairs in Vernon and leaves many friends. He is survived by his widow, his children and 19 grand-children.

The funeral was held at the Advent Church in South Vernon on Tuesday with Rev. E. E. Jones officiating and burial was in the family plot at Vernon.

N. R. A. NOTES

Former President Hoover has given a most cordial endorsement to the NRA Program of President Roosevelt and urges that every assistance be rendered to make it successful.

Supper Was Success All Teachers Greeted New Association formed

The progressive supper held on Monday night to welcome the teachers was an entire success, the seventy-three persons served waxing enthusiastic over the novel reception and delicious supper. Many thanks are due to the hostesses, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Montague and Mrs. Morgan, for opening their charming and hospitable homes for the occasion, and to all who helped by donations of food or service to make the affair one long to be remembered.

Following the last course, a brief business meeting was held with Mrs. Birdsall presiding. A new Teacher-Parent Union was formally organized to carry on the work of the former P. T. A. The officers elected at the annual May meeting were requested to serve for the ensuing year, and the matter of by-laws was left to the executive committee. The suggestion was made that dues be omitted, to encourage a wider attendance of those interested in the work of the schools, and to raise any needed funds to back the various projects suggested by other methods. This also was left to the executive committee.

Mrs. Addison and Miss Robinson sang several selections. Mrs. Vorce gave a speech of welcome to the teachers, and a most pleasant social hour followed with the singing of well-loved old-time songs under the direction of Mr. Parminter.

Local Suits Are Filed For Superior Court

Suits have been filed in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court by Northfield residents:

Joseph Butynski of Northfield has sued Lucas Sczybra of Northfield for $5,000 for injuries received when as a passenger in the defendant's car, he was thrown from the vehicle which collided with a telephone pole on Main St. Northfield, March 19, 1933.

Frank S. O'Brien of Northampton has sued E. H. Porter and Edward F. Porter of Northfield for recovery of commission of $250 for a real estate sale.

Doane Quits Jail Successor Is Appointed

Mr. Fred W. Doane, sheriff of Franklin County who has also served as keeper of the Franklin County jail has resigned the latter office and the county commissioners approved the appointment of Irwin B. Hale of Greenfield as his successor. Doane is retiring as keeper on account of poor health, but will continue to serve as sheriff, an office to which he was re-elected last November.

Mrs. Doane who has acted as matron of the house of correction for nearly 10 years, also resigned that office and will be succeeded by Mrs. Hale.

The salary of the keeper of the house of correction was set by the county commissioners at $1500 a year and that of matron at $600 a year, subject to the approval of the county personnel board. A house adjoining the jail goes with the post.

Sheriff and Mrs. Doane have taken an apartment at the Merriam apartment on High street and according to their plans now will take an extended trip following the close of the November session of the superior court.

Pheasants Released

The state department, of conservation, through its division of fisheries and game, has just completed release of more than 38,000 pheasants and approximately 8,000 quail in covers in all parts of the state to help furnish Massachusetts hunters with a good upland game season, which opens the 20th. Director Raymond J. Kenney stated that the last shipments were made this week. Western Massachusetts has received its proportionate number and the woodlands about Northfield should have plenty of game.

Enroute To Japan

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Durgin spent a short time with Rev. Mr. Pattison and his daughter Polly last week Wednesday while enroute on their return journey to Japan. They visited by motor Mr. Pattison's home and were much impressed with his fine church and its activities. Mr. Pattison through them wished to be remembered to all friends in Northfield. Mr. and Mrs. Durgin are now on the Pacific having sailed from Seattle last Friday.

Gift To Library

Rev. Dr. James T. Sunderland, who was minister of the Northfield Unitarian Church, 1873-1876, has sent to Rev. Mary Andrews, Chaplain of the Northfield Public Library four of his publications—India in Bondage is a book of more than 500 pages. A very vital book, Evolution and Religion, a book of less than 200 pages and two still smaller books, Because Men Are Not Stones and Wealth, Beauty and Youth for All. One who has read the latter recommends it heartily to every man or woman, youth or maiden in Northfield.

Don't Expect the Harvest Too Soon

The Teachers Institute Held Last Friday

The annual Teachers' Institute for the teachers of the five towns of this superintendency district was held in the Town Hall in Leyden Friday, September 29. All the teachers were present and several members of school committees of the towns.

The forenoon was devoted to addresses from several educators. Mrs. Evelyn G. Lawley told some interesting facts concerning her Mediterranean trip last summer, dwelling on the points most interesting to the teachers of History and Geography. Mrs. Ethel H. Bryant of Powers Institute discussed the great Fair at Chicago, which she visited.

A turkey dinner, with all the "fixins" was provided by the Leyden ladies in their best style. This was one of the high spots of the day.

In the afternoon, Mr. Lawrence of Greenfield High School, discussed "Pupil Guidance" by which we endeavor to point the student toward the sphere of activity in life for which nature has best fitted him. Following this, came the annual Spelling Contest. Four pupils were chosen from each town and these twenty met on the stage of the hall. The words were given by the Superintendent, and a committee of three principals, Misses Sheldon, Cutting and Bridge were to check the spelling by the contestants. The winner was Miss Lu Wilson of Bernardston. For the third time the prize goes to Bernardston.

Instructions by the Superintendent were given for the guidance of the teachers of the year. The next Institute will occur in Warwick next fall.

Greenfield Evangelism To Attract Many Folks

At the First Baptist Church in Greenfield beginning next Sunday October 8th a week of evangelistic effort will follow to which the church people of this town an invitation to attend is extended.

Dr. James Worboys of Sydney, N. S. W., author and evangelist, will appear in a series of special addresses throughout the week. With Dr. Worboys will be Alexander Kaminsky, Imperial Russian violinist formerly of the Royal Grand Opera in Moscow and a favorite of the late czar who recently gave a sacred concert here in the Congregational Church.

Sunday, the 8th they will be heard at 11 a.m., 3.30 and 7 p.m. From Monday to Friday inclusive they will appear at 7.30 p.m., and on Sunday, the 13th, will conclude their local stay with addresses and recitals at 11, 3.30 and 7. Kaminsky who plays a 300-year-old Guarnerius as well as a Gasparrini specially made for him in Chicago will be accompanied by Miss Anna Kaminsky, his daughter. I. J. Lawrence, former head of the Mount Hermon music department, will direct the special music throughout the series as song leader and soloist.

Pulaski Day

The Polish residents of Northfield and vicinity will be interested to learn that Governor Ely has issued a proclamation calling upon the people of Massachusetts to observe appropriately the 11th as Pulaski Day, to commemorate the aid given the colonies in the American Revolution by this heroic Polish soldier who gave his life for American independence.

Gen. Casimir Pulaski, heroic Polish commander who gave his life for American independence, and whose bravery on the field of battle prompted the colonial Congress to commission him with the rank of Brigadier-General while the great American Revolution was at its height, is the type we are proud to honor.

Amelia Earhart Speaks In Auditorium

Amelia Earhart Putnam addressed an audience of fifteen hundred last Saturday night in the Northfield Seminary Auditorium, inaugurating the school's annual lecture course. In a quiet, matter-of-fact manner the famous flier told the thrilling story of her successful trans-Atlantic flight. It was hard for the audience to associate this charming, gracious, beautiful, gowned woman with the girl who had the hardihood and courage to accomplish a gruelling trans-Atlantic solo flight.

Mrs. Putnam said that although her flight probably added little to the scientific advancement of aviation, she felt that it did have a far-reaching value in creating interest and a sympathetic attitude among women toward this new form of transportation.

After the lecture Mrs. Putnam gave an informal talk to a group of girls representing the Campus Government Association and the Northfield Star. She told her story again to this intimate group and answered questions.

Trustees Will Meet

The fall meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Northfield Schools will be held next Saturday at Kenard Hall. Mr. Wilfred W. Fry, President of the Board will preside. Miss Harriet Broad will be present as one of the two alumnae representatives. Miss Broad replaces Miss Daisy B. Treen in this capacity.

Saturday night the Board of Trustees will entertain the faculties of both schools at a dinner to be given in the Chateau.

The Board of Alumni Councilors will hold their semi-annual meeting on Saturday afternoon at Mount Hermon.

Mr. Fry will speak at the Mount Hermon Chapel Sunday morning and at Sage Chapel for Sunday Vespers.

Death By Hanging

Mr. John Vorce, age 82, of Orange met death Wednesday by hanging himself in the orchard of his son, Martin E. Vorce on Main Street when he made the discovery after the fact became known that he was missing.

The cause of the suicide is unknown and the family could shed no light upon it. The elder Vorce was in good health and had not been despondent.

Those surviving are four sons and one daughter. Martin of Northfield, Walter and Charles of Orange, Elsworth of Natick and Mrs. Minnie Woodward of Boston. His wife died thirty years ago. The funeral was held from Kidder's Funeral parlor Friday and burial will be in Orange.

SOUTH CHURCH

Rev. Mary Andrews Conner, Minister, Sunday 9.45 a.m. Church school with special kindergarten training, 10.45 a.m., Church Worship, Rev. C. C. Conner will conduct the service. 7 p.m., Young People's Meeting. All young people, not working in the other churches, are invited to participate in this organization.

Eighteen of the Alliance women joined in the neighborhood meeting of Alliances in Greenfield Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Louis C. Cornish of Cambridge, Mass., spoke on the great progress of liberal religion in Europe, especially in Czechoslovakia.

Twenty young people met in the parlors of the church last Sunday evening and after a devotional service led by one of the new teachers Mr. Parminter, organized a Young People's Religious Union. This Union is for all young people between the ages of 14 and 20 years, and is for the spiritual and wholesome recreational life of Northfield's youth. Many different projects will be taken up in the interest of Northfield as a community.

The Local NRA Ending Preliminary Tasks Compliance Board Named

The Northfield National Recovery Board has about completed its preliminary tasks as directed from the office of the National Administrator at Washington.

The list of enrolled employers has been checked and completed and many of the adopted codes governing industry have been received. It is expected that with the signing by some five additional interests the President's Re-employment Agreement will be scheduled one hundred per cent. The Consumer's cards now on file number nearly seven hundred, all of which makes a good showing for Northfield's interest and patriotism in this recovery endeavor. What a fine thing it is to co-operate in a fraternal and non-partisan way for the benefit of humanity, to provide employment for all and thereby reduce poverty and want. To bar the work of children and give them the days of pleasure and education to fit them for life. To end the sweat and toil of women forced to slave for a pittance to exist. What greater honor to men and women could be conceived than the realization of that Christian fact that "We are our brother's Keeper." Self respect is ours and their in this great undertaking of national recovery.

The second step to follow the adoption of codes and the use of "the blue eagle" is now apparent for again directions are received to form the Northfield Compliance Board. Appointed by Chairman Hoehn of the General Committee the membership of the board consists of representative employers and employees in industry, wholesale, and retail distributors, a representative of the consumers and a lawyer. These six would choose a seventh member to serve as permanent chairman.

The functions of this board are to receive complaints and to attempt to correct the situation. Should this fail they are to act in a judicial capacity. Their functions do not apply to labor disputes, which are to be handled by the National Labor Advisory Board.

The members of the Board met last Friday at Town Hall and chose William F. Hoehn as Chairman and Samuel E. Walker as Secretary for Interpretations. The other members are: Frank H. Montague, Merwin D. Birdsall, George W. Carr, Mrs. W. P. Stanley, and Walker Kimball Attorney.

All complaints or requests for information, should be made to this board in this district and may be made personally or in writing with confidence. In complaints statement of actual facts must be made. It is the hope that all those displaying the "blue eagle" will fulfill President's blanket code or its substitution for the specific trade or industry.

Northfield Tax Rate Is Announced As $32. Same As Last Year

Well at last the great secret is out and on Monday it was made known that the tax rate for Northfield would be $32. per thousand for 1933 the same as last year. It had been hoped that the economies effected at the town meeting last February would result in a reduced rate but the loss of income from the State and other sources was seriously felt and failed to provide a reduction.

Autumn Plans the Bedroom

By PAULINE A. FREDERICK

SOMETIMES I can imagine I'm lying on cool moss looking up into trees on fire with autumn.

Arlen smiled a wan smile—
because weeks of illness had made it that. Her listener smiled too. But not from pity, not amusement—rather from inspiration. A shut-in had found the glow of autumn in her room—and little wonder!

As the afternoon sun pointed red-gold fingers across Arlen's moss-green counterpane, the listener took in details. The four-poster bed was maple, and across its foot was tossed a rust color afghan through which ran faintly traced leaf patterns of green and gold.

Walls of pale buff, like a fresh morning sky, bounded the sick girl's world. Two windows opening to the west were framed in deep brown.
As was the wainscot. Their long drapes were of jade green chintz with copper, moon-yellow, and black floral designs. Burnt orange was the color of the great wing chair between the windows.

Gay scatter rugs in black, maize, copper, Chinese red, and bright green were like autumn leaves against the chocolate brown floor.
The dresser and its hanging mirror,
as well as the bed, were maple.
Two straight back chairs had been painted a deep, warm brown and given two small bands of burnt orange on legs and knobs.

There was even a touch of late October reflected in the door—it was jade green with the center panel outlined in rust.

The listener had an idea. She was in perfect health, but a room painted in autumn colors could be a tonic
—even for her. There was a drawback, though—she had no maple furniture. But wait... those shabby mahogany pieces of hers could be done in brown or green with two coats of enamel or lacquer and fitted into just such a setting as this.
"You know, Arlen," she said suddenly, "I'm going to duplicate this lovely room of yours. That is, if you don't mind."

"Of course not," Arlen laughed.
"I'd be flattered. Go ahead."

Avoid All Fad Diets And Quacks If You Value Your Good Health

Dr. Shirley W. Wynne Warns Overweights Against Reducing Pills, Soaps, Salts

This is the third of a series of articles on weight control by Dr.
Wynne.

By Dr. Shirley W. Wynne
Commissioner of Health,
New York City

No field related to medicine contains more quacks and fakers than that of weight control, largely because of the feeling that dieting involves rigorous self-denial or other unpleasant experiences. Proper dieting does not.

At almost any hour one may turn on the radio and hear extolled
the wonders of a new reducing salt, pill or appliance. Newspapers and magazines also carry such advertising. Even one's friends, uninformed, are apt to urge the use of some nostrum of unknown content and effect.

The promoters of patented products often describe their treatment as "scientific" or "modern." I have heard radio speakers tell of salts which when placed in the bath are guaranteed by the promoters to reduce anyone quickly and without recourse to diet or exercise. Others declare all overweight due to glandular disturbances, for which their tablets are said to be corrective.

Let Your Doctor Treat You
It is obvious that none of these things can produce the desired result with safety. If they are harmless they are fraudulent; if not, they are dangerous to health. If you suspect your overweight is due to glandular disturbances or other organic disease, consult your physician at once. Do not risk ruining your health with patent medicines.

The only scientific way to reduce weight is to eat properly and to exercise moderately. Proper eating does not mean starvation, but rather the selection of the right foods, including leafy vegetables, fruits and milk, rather than the heavier, high-calory foods. The sample diets printed with these articles will serve to guide you in correct food selection.

SLIMMING DIET

Here is the third of a series of suggested weight reducing diets prepared for this paper by Dr. Wynne. Each diet provides about 1200 calories daily. Calculate your calories as shown in the first article of this series, and adjust the diet to your needs by taking smaller or larger portions of the food indicated in plain type. Do not change the quantities of the foods in boldface type. These are the protective foods, and must be taken as indicated.

BREAKFAST		Calories
1 peach, pear or banana	50
Poached egg on toast, small	150
dash of butter
2 small slices of bacon well done	75
Coffee (milk instead of cream, no sugar)	25
LUNCH		Calories
Stuffed tomato salad with let- tuce (3/4 tablespoon French dressing)	150
3 saltines	80
1/4 cup vanilla ice cream with 1 ginger snap (or other cracker)	120
DINNER		Calories
1 slice roast lamb lean	150
5 stalks asparagus	25
1 level teaspoon drawn butter	35
1/2 sliced orange on lettuce (1 teaspoonful French dress- ing)	70
3 small stalks of celery	5
4 hopping nabobs berries — or other fruit in season (with 1 tsp. sugar, 1/2 glass milk)	145
1 -less milk	150

Don't try to reduce too fast.
A quarter of a pound a day is enough.

MAKE YOUR KIDDIES THE NEW

MICKEY AND MINNIE MOUSE DOLLS!

EVERY youngster who chordes with glee at the movie antics of those superlative comedians, Mickey and Minnie Mouse, will adore owning the new Mickey and Minnie Mouse stuffed dolls. These dolls are very easy to make... mothers can do it in their spare moments, using scraps of velvet, satin and chintz. Their tails can be shoestrings... or narrow strips of rubber.

These Mickey and Minnie stuffed dolls come in three sizes, 9, 14 and 18 inches. They make happy-go-lucky daily playmates for little girls and boys... and adults like them, too, tucked into a corner of the davenport or sofa.
(McCall Pattern No. 91). By courtesy of The McCall Company.

Y. W. C. A. At Shelburne

Today Friday the district organization of the Y. W. C. A. of Western Mass., convenes with a banquet at the Baptist Church and continues through Sunday when it will close with a vesper service at the Congregational Church at 3.30 P. M.

There will be a program with Rev. Hilda L. Ives, rural secretary, of the Massachusetts Federation of Churches as speaker. The girls are asked to wear costumes or head bands to distinguish their various towns and each group will be asked to answer the roll call with a song or cheer.

On Saturday there will be a devotional service at 9.15 A. M., followed by a question hour led by Mrs. Ives and Mrs. Clifton Johnson will speak on the subject, "Tomorrow." Dinner will be served at the Methodist Church and if the weather is favorable the girls will hike to the Mary Lyon birthplace in Buckland. Mrs. F. C. Pray of Amherst, nature authority, will direct the hike. Mary Lyon's story will be told and the group will proceed to the Johnson Homestead where a hot supper will be served by the ladies of the Congregational Church. In the evening there will be camping program with Girl Reserve ring ceremonial and singing.

On Sunday morning the girls will go to church with their hostesses and there will be vesper service at the Congregational Church at 3.30 o'clock to which the public is invited.

Prof. S. Ralph Harlow of Smith College will close the conference with an address, "Making the Most of Life."

Girls will be present from all parts of Berkshire, Franklin, Hampshire and Hampden Counties.

Seminary Items

Miss Eleanor Davis, head of Hillsdale Cottage has surprised her girls with a deck tennis set. The court is laid out on the front lawn and it is large enough for two sets of players. The Hillsdale girls have wished for a game of this sort for a long time.

The Northfield Seminary Athletic Association held the second meeting of the year Monday morning in Skinner Gymnasium with Frederika Durfee presiding. Plans for the forthcoming annual field day were discussed and Miss Grace Field, head of the department of physical education, announced that all new students had received the required physical examination.
Regular gymnasium classes will begin this week and practice for fall sports consisting of volley ball, hockey and captain ball will soon be in full swing, while afternoon plunges in Munger Swimming pool will be resumed within a few days.
Due to the new changes in the school holidays, games for the ensuing year will be played on Saturday afternoon.

A one-act play "The Slow Poke" will be one of the features of the annual rally for The Northfield Star to be held next Saturday night. Miss Virginia E. Major of Brookline, Mass., and Miss Miriam Booth of Bennington, Vermont will take leading parts.

The Sunday Chapel speakers at Sage Chapel last Sunday were Miss Mira B. Wilson who spoke at the morning service on the subject "Different Phases of Religion." At the vesper service Mr.
Harold B. Ingalls, chaplain of Northfield Seminary, took for his subject "Spirituality in Everyday Things." Next Sunday the speakers will be Professor A. Bruce Curry, of Union Theological Seminary, and Mr. Wilfred W. Fry of Philadelphia, President of the Board of Trustees of The Northfield Schools.

Chapel speakers during the past week at Sage Chapel have been as follows: Thursday, Mr. A. E.
Roberts, Executive Secretary of The Northfield Schools; Friday,
Mr. M. L. Gallagher, Director of Music of The Northfield Schools; Saturday, Mr. H. B. Ingalls; Monday, Miss Mira B. Wilson; and Tuesday, Miss Eleanor Davis.

Locals

The jurors in the Bull murder case were called Thursday and those selected will probably remain away from home until the case is concluded. Deputy Sheriffs Turner and Darby will be in charge of the jury.

Mr. Fred Dillbach of Brattleboro has leased the Reed gasoline filling station on Main street.

Vernal Hurlbut, manager of the local A. & P. store has rented the apartment in the Reed house and will occupy as a home this winter.

Real estate transfers indicate a change of title to land on Louisianna Road from the Charles H.
Green estate to Osgood Leach.

Mr. Miles E. Morgan has begun the erection of a garage on his lot on Main street. Later he will build a new modern residence for his use.

Myrtle street has been put in good condition for travel by the street department much to the satisfaction of those who travel this highway.

Mr. John J. Broderick, State Game Warden, of Northampton, but formerly of Northfield who has been assigned to the Ayer territory has many friends in Hampshire County who want him retained there. An editorial in the Hampshire Gazette praises his work and urges his retention. It says: "Hunters and fishermen know him as an officer who always does his duty, and has the interests of real conservation at heart. When a man is doing a good job, to the complete satisfaction of the great majority of sportsmen in his district, and has no particular hankering to study conditions in other parts of the state, it is not clear what would be gained by making a change."

Plant Bulbs now for gay flowers indoors through the Winter and for joyous Spring Gardens outdoors!

THE "PROGRESS OF CENTURY" POINTS THE WAY

If you've visited Chicago's Century of Progress Exposition, you've seen vividly portrayed the wonders that electricity has worked in our daily lives.

Perhaps nowhere has electricity done more to relieve the burden of daily cares than in the modern all-electric kitchen. The automatic electric range makes cooking a pleasure. . . . its cleanliness, speed, economy, and dependability are outstanding. The electric refrigerator is a marvel of efficiency and convenience. The electric dishwasher and many small appliances have done much to lighten labor.

Plan an all-electric kitchen for YOUR home! Ask your dealer for his suggestions.

EDITORIAL

The news of a tremendous victory by Republicans over the Democrats at Enfield Conn. in the election of town officials just held proves that the G. O. P. is not as dormant as many would have us believe. For ten years the record was of Democratic success but now with a bang a big landslide is recorded by the Republicans for every town office. Wonder if this political turnover is a shadow of things to come.

Let no one deceive himself or herself regarding the NRA. The National Recovery movement must compel success and its doctrines are here to stay in the prosecution of well laid plans for labor and industry. The old days of aggressive and unfair competition are gone and humanity is to be given a better chance in the world whereby it may exist. The only mark on the beast of unrighteousness, selfishness and greed is the mark of sin, that sin which sends men and women even children to perdition without the warmth of God's sunshine and an understanding of His love. Civilization and Christian stewardship demands that we keep in step with the march of events.

In the sudden death of Mr. McRoberts which the Herald announced last week the summer colony of East Northfield has lost a long time summer resident. His beautiful estate in Mountain Park was the home of many friends here, from his home town of Brooklyn and business friends of New York. He entertained freely and well. His purse was always open for any good cause and he was loyal to the interests of Northfield and its success. His contributions in the improvement of roads, in the care of summer home property and the providing of social facilities has been appreciated by all summer residents. He was a good neighbor, a tower of strength to his family and his friends and they all will miss his genial fellowship and good cheer. "Summer winds will more gently blow" in the memory of a Northfield summer resident.

AFTER the Lenten fast will come Easter festivities. The hostess who has her cake box filled with delicious home-made cake is prepared for the most unexpected entertaining.

Angel Food Cake

1 cup sifted cake flour; 1 cup egg whites; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 1 teaspoon cream of tartar; 1/4 cup sifted granulated sugar; 1/2 teaspoon vanilla; 1/2 teaspoon almond extract.

Sift flour once, measure, and sift four more times. Beat egg whites and salt with flat wire whisk. When foamy, add cream of tartar and continue beating until eggs are stiff enough to hold up in peaks but not dry. Fold in sugar carefully 3 tablespoons at a time, until all is used. Fold in vanilla. Then sift small amount of flour over mixture and fold in carefully, continuing until all is used. Pour batter into ungreased angel food pan and bake in slow oven at least 1 hour. Begin at 375° F. and after 30 minutes increase heat slightly (325° F.) and bake 30 minutes longer. Remove from oven and invert pan for 1 hour, or until cold.

Golden Sponge Cake

1 1/2 cups sifted cake flour; 1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar; 1/2 cup plus 2 tablespoons sugar; 1 egg yolk, beaten until thick and lemon-colored; 1 teaspoon lemon extract; 1 teaspoon orange extract; 1/2 cup cold water.

Sift flour once, measure, and sift four more times. Beat egg yolk and salt with flat wire whisk. When foamy, add cream of tartar and continue beating until eggs are stiff enough to hold up in peaks but not dry. Fold in sugar carefully 3 tablespoons at a time, until all is used. Fold in vanilla. Then sift small amount of flour over mixture and fold in carefully, continuing until all is used. Pour batter into ungreased angel food pan and bake in slow oven at least 1 hour. Begin at 375° F. and after 30 minutes increase heat slightly (325° F.) and bake 30 minutes longer. Remove from oven and invert pan for 1 hour, or until cold.

Poet's Corner

NORTHFIELD

The first time I visited Northfield I drove my Father's team. Past the drive to Mount Hermon School and ferried across the stream.

For all the beauties Northfield had that day I wouldn't have given a dime. I was going to the Seminary to take my girl for a ride. And get her back on time. But she didn't prove to be the one to rule and guide my life. There is nothing on earth that will keep a man where he belongs like a grand good loving wife.

Now I motor to Northfield past the drive and over the stream. A bridge has been built on the very spot where was once the ferry scene.

As I motor on to the town itself nestled among the hills, With its natural beauty and setting it gives me a thousand thrills.

Then my eyes behold the picture the valley and the stream. And on either slope those wonderful schools a monument to Memory dream.

I have stood in the grove on the hillside, where the pine trees moan and sigh, And been lifted by Bell and Pattera's tunes to the very sky. I have sat in the great auditorium and listened to a thousand voices of hope.

The spirit of their song seemed to carry me to that far off invisible shore.

I have listened to Ira D. Sankey sing the "Ninety and Nine" It touched my heart in those early days it was so sincere and fine.

People throng to Northfield, it's a panacea for the soul, It helps those get a new hold on life, who are striving for the goal.

I have only outlined the picture, my words are inadequate and incomplete.

Let it suffice till we untie the Sanctuary Sanctorum, And our Grand Master of Eternity meet.

William T. Graves.

SUNSET

A tranquil peace illumines the west Just prior to lantern glow, Silent of hint its opal quest Enclores the matinee show.

The op'ning scene depicts a maze Of Heaven in wondrous glare, It seems some angel lit the blaze To toll the haven a prayer.

A sunburst kist of tints unfold Parades the emerald skies, A mythic wave from wand of gold Cerise hues transfix the eyes.

Then purple clouds erupt the gloam, On the sapphire hills below, These are the dimensions of the gloam.

And Builder of this tableau.

No masterpiece of sculptured hand No treasure nor lustrous pearl, Reflects of eve this mirage grand To vanish in twilight beryl.

TO RENEW BLANKETS

To keep blankets permanently soft and fluffy as when new, great care should be exercised in their washing. Rubbing, extremes of temperature and harsh soap will cause the sensitive wool fibers to mat down, shrink, and become hard and scratchy. Never use home-made soap.

Washing Suggestions

1. While still dry, shake blanket well to remove dust. Then put into sudsy water and work up and down with hands, squeezing suds through fabric. Use plenty of suds. For one single blanket use about one cup of Ivory soap or flakes to tub or washer about two-thirds full of lukewarm, soft water. A little borax will soften very hard water.

2. If a machine is used, run only two or three minutes in one sudsy, repeating with fresh suds if blanket is very dirty. Avoid severe agitation.

3. When clean, put through loose wringer into clear, lukewarm water and rinse three times in clear water of the same temperature.

4. Wring again loosely and hang in open air to dry. Never dry near heat or in intense cold. When partly dry, shake well from four corners. When thoroughly dry, press binding with warm iron, and air in warm room.

Wife of Governor of Georgia Makes Jams and Jellies for Her Family

A glimpse into one of the first American kitchens. That of Mrs. Eugene Talmadge, wife of the governor of Georgia. Now that fruits are plentiful and popularly priced, Mrs. Talmadge is busy making jams and jellies. She is shown measuring her ingredients accurately and (in insert) preparing her fruit.

THE noble, old art of jam and jelly making is practised by some of the foremost women in the country as well as the rank and file of housewives. It has been learned.

Mrs. Eugene Talmadge, wife of the governor of Georgia, owes to the excellent jams and jellies she makes a large measure of her reputation for being one of the best cooks in the South. As soon as fruits get that alluring, ripe look and the price tags on them meet her standards of economy, she sets about the pleasant task of filling her jam cupboard. Mrs. Talmadge is one of many "first ladies" who excel in this art.

Every woman, regardless of her position in life, is proud of a full and gleaming jam cupboard. The present profusion of berries—blackberries, raspberries and cherries—is a tempting invitation to those who didn't get a very early start and want to begin their jelly making now.

State Fair champions have used the following recipes and the busy, modern housewife will, doubtless, want to use them, too.

Blackberry Jam

4 cups (2 lbs.) prepared fruit
7 cups (3 lbs.) sugar
1/2 bottle fruit pectin

To prepare fruit, grind about 2 quarts fully ripe berries or crush completely one layer at a time so that each berry is broken to a pulp.

Measure sugar and prepared fruit into large kettle, and bring to a full rolling boil over hottest fire. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard 1 minute. Remove from fire and stir in fruit pectin. Then stir and boil by turns for just 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Pour quickly. Paraffin hot jam at once. Makes about 16 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

Raspberry Jelly

4 cups (2 lbs.) juice
7 1/2 cups (3 1/2 lbs.) sugar
1 bottle fruit pectin

To prepare juice, crush thoroughly or grind about 3 quarts fully ripe berries. Place in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice.

Measure sugar and juice into large saucepan and mix. Bring to a boil over hottest fire and at once add fruit pectin, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1/2 minute. Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once. Makes about 11 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

Cherry Jelly

(Any kind except wild cherry or chokecherry)
3 cups (1 1/2 lbs.) juice
6 1/2 cups (3 1/4 lbs.) sugar
1 bottle fruit pectin

To prepare juice, stem and crush about 3 lbs. fully ripe cherries. Do not pit. Add 1/2 cup water, bring to a boil, cover, and simmer 10 minutes. (For stronger cherry flavor, add 1/2 teaspoon almond extract before pouring.) Place fruit in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice.

Measure sugar and juice into large saucepan and mix. Bring to a boil over hottest fire, cook at once add fruit pectin, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1/2 minute. Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once. Makes about 9 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).
